Digital Experience and IT Solutions Analyst, True Ventures Group (New York) January 2024 - March 2024

Resigned due to a change in career plans.

- I play a pivotal role in bridging the gap between IT infrastructure and digital marketing initiatives. My primary responsibility is to analyze, design, and implement solutions that enhance the digital experience for our customers across various platforms, including our website, mobile apps, and social media channels.
- Analyze user interactions and feedback to identify areas for improvement in the digital experience. Implement changes to enhance usability, accessibility, and engagement across digital platforms.
- Lead the deployment of handheld and new mobile applications, including planning, testing, and launching phases. Oversee ongoing administration and updates to ensure optimal performance and user satisfaction.
- Work closely with the IT team to develop and integrate technology solutions that support marketing objectives. This includes managing and optimizing our website (powered by WordPress), ensuring seamless CRM integration, and leveraging tools like Google Analytics, HubSpot, and Salesforce for insights.
- Utilize Google Analytics and other data analysis tools to track, report, and interpret user behavior and campaign performance. Provide actionable insights to marketing and IT teams to drive strategy and decision-making.
- Collaborate with marketing, IT, and design teams to ensure a cohesive and effective digital strategy. Act as a liaison between technical and non-technical stakeholders to facilitate understanding and project progress.
- Stay abreast of the latest trends and technologies in digital marketing and IT. Recommend and implement innovative solutions that keep the company at the forefront of digital customer experience.
